

CSPRA Meeting held at Magrath July 12, 2019

Stock for Finals:

Lazy B (Manerd Bird) and T&C Cattle Co (Tim Bevans) submitted bids.

FYI: Tim's bid was received past deadline.

Discussion:

Tim does a lot for the association

Both contractor's cattle have had rodeos this year

Manerd has more numbers to choose from

Vote: Maynard 5, Tim 1, abstained 1

Judges:

Glen Nash is the only one to put in a bid and will bring Ramona to help (at a cost).

We will contact Everett Ness to see if he is available, then Brenda Knight will be the next choice.

All in favour.

Announcer:

The only bid received was from Randy Schmidt, all agree he is a good choice.

Awards Chairman:

Craig will do buckles.

Marilyn will do SL jackets and reserve prizes and look for someone to take this over for future.

Reserve Awards:

Discussion about the runners up only getting one item if they won more than one event.

MOTION that each runner up should get the prize they won and it not be combined, Passed.

There was discussion about pairing down the budget for finals prizes. They will try and shave down the cost and will let Kenny know the costs by the Wetaskiwin rodeo weekend and he will discuss with Executive.

Association jackets:

We will find someone to do it.

People riding into their event ponying another horse:

It is up to committee and/or arena director to monitor this.

Medical out of tie down 60 and still compete in tie down 68+:

There is no rule saying if they medical out of one calf event that they cannot compete in another.

MOTION adjourn meeting.
